Profile

Kalman Magyar is an international lawyer and adjunct business law professor with 25 years of wide-ranging experience in courtrooms, boardrooms and classrooms throughout the United States and Canada. He is called to the bar in Ontario as a Barrister & Solicitor, and admitted to the bars of New York, Florida, New Jersey, and several United States federal courts, including the United States Supreme Court.

Kalman is the Managing Partner of Magyar, Bogle & O'Hara LLP, overseeing a practice that combines working on a wide range of legal issues for entities of all sizes – from public corporations, private companies, to entrepreneurs doing business in Canada, United States, and beyond. He focuses on complex transactions, intellectual property matters, crisis management and litigation strategy. His clients have engaged in a host of industries, including vitamins and supplements, health care, consumer packaged goods, pharmaceuticals, performing arts, sports, automotive, biotechnology, aviation, distribution, finance, insurance, construction, and manufacturing.

Kalman is the author of the best-selling self-help memoir Put Your Pants On and Get to Work - Ten Principles for Zestful Living

(<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/https://books2read.com/b/4A5DoA>).

Internationally bestselling author Marissa Stapley

(<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/http://marissastapley.com/about/>) says this about the book: “A clear, concise and informative instruction manual for life delivered with humour, wisdom and heart. It's a book I immediately wanted to share and discuss with the people I care about. The format is easy to follow, the writing assured and clear -- and you'll come away feeling as if you just had a discussion with a trusted, knowledgeable friend who has set you on a new path!” The book features a foreword by Jeremiah Brown

(<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/https://the4yearolympian.com/author/>),

Canadian Olympic Silver medallist in rowing. The book has also been published in Hungarian, titled Kösd Fel a Gatyád és Állj Neki a Munkának - Tíz Alapelv Egy Szívvel-Lélekkal Teli Élethez

(<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/https://books2read.com/b/1oalapelv>).

He is married with three teenaged children and splits his time between Toronto, Ontario and Naples, Florida. He can frequently be found on Twitter

Teaching and Lecturing Experience

Kalman serves as an Adjunct Professor of Business Law at Keiser University (Naples Campus), Florida's largest private, not-for-profit university. He is also a Supervisor and Judge for the upper year moot court course for the University of Toronto Faculty of Law, routinely ranked among the world's top ten law schools.

He previously taught as an adjunct at Seneca College in Toronto (Canadian Business Law); at Fairleigh Dickinson University in New Jersey (Civil Litigation for the Paralegal Studies Program); and guest lectured at New School University, Department of Fashion Design (New York City).

Education and Prior Work

A graduate of Brooklyn Law School in 1998 (where he won the CALI Excellence for the Future Award for achieving the highest grade in Food & Drug Law course) and Pittsburgh's Duquesne University (cum laude) in 1995, Kalman was a Judicial Law Clerk for the Superior Court of New Jersey from 1998 to 1999, and engaged in private practice for two prominent New Jersey/New York-based law firms from 1999 to 2007, representing a diverse variety of companies, including Fortune 500 companies.

He relocated to Toronto in 2007 when he became Assistant General Counsel for Iovate Health Sciences, creator of some of the most iconic supplement brands in the world, such as Hydroxycut and Muscle Tech. He re-entered private practice in 2011 when he formed his solo practice which would eventually become Magyar, Bogle & O'Hara LLP.

Community and Board Involvement

The son of Hungarian-born parents, Kalman speaks Hungarian fluently and is an accomplished Hungarian folk musician (<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/https://www.kalmanmagyar.com/bio/>) and the host of Tanchaz Talk (<https://web.archive.org/web/20230226001357/https://www.tanchaz.com/>), the world's only English-language program/podcast focusing primarily on Hungarian folk music.

He serves on the Board and Legal Committee of the American Hungarian Chamber of Commerce, as well as a legal advisor and Board of Governors member for the Hungarian Chamber of Commerce in Canada. He is also a longtime Advisory Board Member for the American Hungarian Folklore Centrum. In 2021, he was awarded "Businessman of the Year" by the Hungarian Canadian Business Association.

An avid soccer fan, Kalman is a certified soccer coach and previously served as Vice President of Football and Board of Directors member at the Toronto High Park Football Club. He is also a competitive tennis player, and was formerly Vice President of Swansea Tennis Club (Toronto).
